Dulles-based Reston Limousine Receives Award At Arts Council of Fairfax Annual Meeting

Kristina Bouweiri, President and CEO of the Dulles-based Reston Limousine, received the Arts Council of Fairfax County's Business Arts Award from council chairman Philip Sparks at the organization's annual meeting last month at the Hilton McLean in Tysons Corner. Bouweiri, a Leesburg resident, was recognized for her long-standing donation of transportation services to the council's annual International Children's Festival at Wolf Trap. A regional leader in transportation services, Reston Limousine recently was named to the Top 100 Fleet Operators in the nation for the scope of its operations. Founded in 1964, the Arts Council of Fairfax supports and promotes the artistic diversity of the Fairfax community and seeks to integrate the arts into the lives of county residents.
